Re: United States v. Strohbusch, 19 Cr. 309 (ALC)

Hon. Judge Carter,

This Court sentenced Mr. Strohbusch to 82 months in the custody of the BOP. He is to surrender once designated to a facility. For the interim time, he wishes to travel to his parent's home in Bradford, California and surrender from there. Both the government and pretrial agree that Mr. Strohbusch has been compliant with his conditions of release but, because of office policy, they can not consent to his travel request. The Court has previously this travel and we ask the Court to grant this request as well. He would travel with his mother tomorrow. The Court is aware of this request as it was made at the sentencing proceeding on January 8, 2024.

I thank the Court for its continuing attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/Sabrina P. Shroff
Counsel to John Jensen Strohbusch
